Next Monday afternoon at 2:30 the Capital City League teams will play out a double header in Athletic Park. The four teams to take part in these games are the Y. M. C. A. vs. Black Sox and Globe vs. A. M. E. These teams are going at high speed now and will furnish a good article of baseball. The public will be highly paid for their visit. The League officials have striven hard to put baseball on a high plane and feel that they have succeeded to a degree.

The games that have been played have drawn large crowds and the enthusiasm has always ran high. Between four and five hundred people witnessed every game.

The games Monday will be stubbornly contested from start to finish. The Y. M. C. A. by defeating the Southern Stars Saturday moved into second place and only one game separates them from the leaders, the strong A. M. E. team.

The Globe team defeated the Baptist Hill Swifts Monday and thereby moved up from fifth to third place.

The Black Sox, the team feared by all, have struck their stride and will give the Y. M. C. A. a run for the first honors. Their playing against the N. & C. Stars Saturday was gilt edge.

GLOBE 3, BAPTIST HILL SWIFTS 4.

Monday on the Cheek-Neal diamond the Nashville Globe team defeated Baptist Hill Swifts in a fast game. The Globes were shut out up to the sixth inning, but in that inning Brannon weakened and the opposing team fell on him. When the smoke of battle cleared away three runs had been put over. In the seventh neither team scored, but in the eighth the Globe made two runs and forged one ahead. No scoring was done in the ninth and the game ended with the score 5 to 4 in favor of Globe.

In a game full of ginger and replete with brilliant play the Y. M. C. A. defeated the Southern Stars on their own grounds Saturday, near Belmont. A record breaking crowd was out and rooting was fierce. It was a pitcher's battle and was anybody's game, until the last ball was pitched. Only three hits were made, two going to the Y. M. C. A. and one to the Southern Stars.

The Athletics outplayed in every department of the game the A. M. E.

S. S. Union team last Saturday on the Walden campus. For eight innings the Athletics, by superior playing, kept the A. M. E.'s from scoring. In the ninth, however, a combination of errors, a home run and five hits gave the A. M. E.'s five scores and the game. The score follows:

and civic life of the city as was witnessed Sunday afternoon. Only about one-fourth of those in the parade were able to gain admittance to the Congress Hall.

The principal speaker of the occasion, Prof. J. A. Booker, A. M., D. D., President of the Arkansas Baptist College at Little Rock, with Chairman Clark and Director R. H. Boyd were conspicuous figures in the parade in the afternoon. Prof. Booker spoke for about forty-five minutes relating the achievements of the Negro Baptists, showing how they had been able to build not only denominational enterprises, but now they had been able to permanently inject into the masses of the people racial ambition. At the conclusion of the speech a general jubilee was indulged in, oration was given upon announcement of the fact that a Cadets Corps of Sunday-school boys, a new feature in Sunday-school work, had been launched.

Sunday at 11 o'clock visiting preachers filled the pulpits of the city, while the Congress Superintendents took charge of the Sunday-schools in the morning. On Sunday night Rev. L. C. Lewis, of Opelousas, La., preached the farewell sermon. At 11 o'clock, with Chairman Clark on the one side, Director R. H. Boyd on the other, with Secretary Henry Allen Boyd in the center, while around were grouped the other Congress officials, together with Secretaries Hudson and Easterling, the Eighth Annual Session of the Congress was announced closed. On Monday morning the entire delegate body with their special train left for their homes.

and considering the demands of the work, just at this time, the plan was altered. I received a message to-day saying that there were quite large interests at stake for Texas in connection with the bequest of one of our dear friends there, and that my presence would be demanded next week. It seemed that, in order to make that long journey I must get things here in shape for leaving, and so, after careful consideration it was decided that I ought not to go. I know you will understand that we would gladly be with you in this time of sorrow. We shall pray for you that you may be comforted and that because of this experience through which you are passing, God may be able to use you even more than he has done in the past, for the glory of his kingdom.

We are joining with the other Boards in sending a floral tribute, which is to express to you, in a feeble way, our appreciation and our sympathy. May our father comfort you as He alone can.

Sincerely yours,
MRS. ANNA ATWATER.

Rev. Preston Taylor.

Very Dear Pastor: The sad news of the death of Sister Georgia reached me Saturday afternoon, quite a surprise to me. I announced it to my congregation also, and it seemed to be a shock to all who heard it, but we know that the Bible teaches us, "Here we have no continuing city," so we must console ourselves by these words. Be of good cheer and we will overcome the world. I extend to you my heartfelt sympathy for the griefs of all those concerned. My wife sends her best regards to you and joins me in sympathy. The church joins me also. I remain your son in the gospel,
A. W. DAVIS.

May God comfort you and bless you, is the wish of one who has passed under his rod in a similar loss. I am yours sincerely,
